BrightStars Family Child Care Provider Achieves 5-Star Rating Nuris Ynoa, Owner/Director of Nuris' Home Day Care in Providence, becomes the first family child care provider in the state to achieve a 5-Star BrightStars Quality Rating.

Providence, RI, March 13, 2012 –Nuri's Home Day Care, located in the Reservoir Triangle neighborhood of Providence, becomes the first family child care provider in Rhode Island to achieve a 5-star BrightStars Quality Rating. Nuris Ynoa and her husband and assistant Jose Rodriguez have been providing quality care and education to young children in the community for over 10 years, with the vision that all children in the program enter school healthy and prepared for learning.

This month BrightStars was extremely proud to recognize the hard work and dedication of Nuris and Jose, awarding their child care program a star rating increase to 5 Stars. In order to achieve 5 Stars, Nuris' Home Day Care was measured across multiple quality standards and criteria and developed a written preschool curriculum framework reviewed by the RI Department of Education.

Nuris holds an Associate's Degree in Early Childhood Education and is trained in the Rhode Island Early Learning Standards. Over the years she has engaged in various levels of professional development to improve her professional practice, knowledge, and skills, and her program has participated in BrightStars since 2010.

This level of commitment to providing quality education and care is clearly reflected in her program and her reputation; Nuris' Home Day Care currently has a waiting list of families and she is frequently sought out by her colleagues and peers to offer advice and guidance.
